GROW IN THE WORD

01. Moses encountered God through a burning bush that miraculously remained unconsumed by the fire. Speaking through the bush, God revealed his holiness and his identity as the God of Moses' ancestors: Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. God expressed deep concern for the suffering of his people and commissioned Moses to rescue them out of Egypt. Moses was reluctant to obey, but God assured Moses with a promise of his presence and a description of his character (Exodus 3:1-15).

- What does God's chosen name reveal to you about his character and his nature? See also Psalm 90:1-2; Isaiah 43:10-11; Hebrews 13:8.
- How does Moses' response to God mirror the ways in which we struggle and doubt when God calls us to carry out his purposes? Take note of the content and frequency of Moses' questions to God.
- In what ways can God's promise to be with Moses encourage you when you face similar doubts and questions as you seek to obey? See Jeremiah 1:4-10; Matthew 28:29; Hebrews 13:5-6.

02. The Jewish religious leaders accused Jesus of being demon-possessed in response to his teaching about death, God, and Abraham. They confronted Jesus and questioned his authority to make such claims about truth and eternal life. Jesus responded by proclaiming his knowledge of God and his own eternal nature, which resulted in an attempted murder by the religious leaders (John 8:52-59).

- In what way does Jesus' teaching and proclamation of his identity relate to Exodus 3:1-15? In other words, who does Jesus say he is?

GROW IN THE WORD

- How would you describe the religious leaders' posture toward Jesus and his teaching? See Hebrews 3:12-13.
- In light of who Jesus says he is, how do you want your posture towards him and his teaching to change?

MOSES AND THE BURNING BUSH

Moses and the Burning Bush

By R.C. Sproul

How can an unholy people stand before a holy God? Who is God, and what is His relationship to His creation? And how can we know Him? In Exodus 3, Moses saw a bush that was burning yet was not consumed by the flames. When he turned to look at it, God gave him one of the most profound theology lessons recorded in the Bible. There, God revealed Himself in a remarkable way, and as Dr. R.C. Sproul writes, His revelation in the burning bush continues to have relevance for Christians today.

"I AM" Sent Me (Exodus 3:14)

By David Platt

This podcast looks at when God responded to Moses' question about who He was and how his answer applies to us today. Because God is immutable and with us we are reminded of God's unique identity as Lord of all.
